

Our topic in Cherry Tree this term is Frantic Pharaohs!

Math like an Egyptian Research the Ancient Egyptian maths symbols. Create some amazingly ancient maths equations for Miss Guest and Cherry to work out. You can use addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. (Make sure you have an answer sheet!)	Hieroglyphics What are hieroglyphics? What symbols were used and what did they mean? Make an Ancient Egyptian scroll and write a secret message for Miss Guest and Cherry Tree to work out.	Queen Cleopatra Research into the Ancient Egyptian Queen Cleopatra. Who is she? Why is she a famous Ancient Egyptian? Produce an information booklet about her life.
Death Mask Pharaohs and Queens were buried in a grand death mask made from gold. Design and make your own death mask.	Choose at least 2 activities to complete by 11/10/2019 and bring them in to school and share your creativity so we can display them in class!	Egypt today Research Egypt today and make a brochure on places of interest to visit. You may include maps, paragraphs of information, sub headings, drawings, photographs, labels, captions, attraction star rating and reviews from tourists etc....
Maximum Mummification Write a set of instructions on how to make a mummy. What did the Egyptians do to mummies before they wrapped them in bandages? What other things have you learnt about mummies? You could make your own mummy and include some photographs in your step-by-step mummification guide. (You may want to use an old Barbie or Action Man.)	The life of an Ancient Egyptian Imagine you have travelled back in time in the Tardis to Ancient Egypt. What did the Ancient Egyptians do in their daily lives? What did they wear? What kind of work did they do? Did anything exciting happen to you on your travels? Create a diary entry (or more than one if you're there for more than a day!) of your exciting adventure. (You may want to include food/entertainment/clothing.)	Religion Religion was very important to the Ancient Egyptians. They worshipped many gods for a happy life because they believed the gods protected the land. Make your own mini encyclopaedia on religion. Remember they are organised alphabetically and pages may include photos or diagrams. To give you a head start words you may include could be: afterlife, temple, pyramid, gods and goddesses, embalmer, mummification, canopic jar, book of the dead etc.
