Kindness, Respect, Determination & Hope

We have had a busy week in school this week. Mulberry Tree have been making some very attractive Diva Pots, Apple Tree were working very hard on adding and subtracting ten from any number, Cherry Tree were making straw pan pipes yesterday, Horse Chestnut have worked really hard on their descriptive writing this week and Oak were spotted yesterday covered in paint again with their shields. I think there was a big thank you from Mr Power to Freya and Jessica for helping with the grand tidy-up!

We have some excellent stars this week. Hudson from Mulberry, Ronnie in Apple, Ruby in Cherry, Bella in Horse Chestnut and William H in Oak Tree. The comments were great - we had: 'she is so pretty she doesn't need make-up', 'we pick flowers together', 'he is just amazing and such a good friend' 'she is so funny', 'she is the kindest most hard-working person I know', 'she is my BFF and has been since she once saw me crying', 'he is the best'.....

Winning readers of the week are HORSE CHESTNUT TREE for the second time! 96% scored so nearly everyone on 3 times a week. 90% for both HCT and AT so well done, Cherry up again on last week so very well done and super Mulberry you're still in the 80's.

Some children in HCT & AT are reading 7 or 8 times a week - so pleased with you, well done.

Enjoy your weekend.
