Hope- Kindness- Respect- Determination

What a cold and foggy day today - this makes the children all very excited at playtimes!

We have had a busy week in school - working very hard on the school video with the aim to promote what a lovely school your children make it. Thank you for your patience after the confusion yesterday as it was shared through the school Facebook page. I appreciate the concern that some of you had that an account of mine had been hacked - of course the friend request is the school not a specific person. Please just follow our page if you do not wish to be a friend - you won't miss anything.

We have some excellent stars this week. Pippa from Mulberry, Laci-Lou in Apple, Alex in Cherry, Conor R in Horse Chestnut and Jacob in Oak Tree. The comments were great- we had: 'he has a cheeky smile and you deserve it', 'she melts my heart like marshmallows in chocolate', 'he is kind, fast , funny and just brilliant', 'he deserves Gladiator of the week because he tries his hardest at everything', 'she shares a lot', 'she is cute pretty and awesome'.....

Best readers of the week are HORSE CHESTNUT TREE! 100% again!! Well done. Closely followed by Mulberry Tree. Fantastic.

Enjoy your weekend.

Christmas Cards

We are happy for children to give Christmas cards to each other as long as they are in the same class bubble!

As Monday is St Andrew's Day we are celebrating by dressing in Blue & White or anything Tartan and it's free & for fun!

Apple Class have their PE lesson on Monday, please wear your blue jogging bottoms with a white or tartan top (suitable for pe) so you can take part too!

Wear your PE Kit on.....

Mulberry Tree - Friday

Apple Tree Class - Monday & Thursday

Cherry Tree Class - Wednesday

Horse Chestnut Class - Tuesday & Wednesday

Oak Class - Tuesday & Friday

If you haven't already seen our school video please follow this link and share with your family and friends....
