Off With Her Head!

Paint or draw a portrait of someone in your family. What objects or symbols could be included to show the person's character? Embellish the picture with different materials to add interest and texture.	Make a Tudor-style brooch, ring or headdress. Take a photograph of yourself wearing your item in your most stately pose!	Find and copy examples of monarchs' signatures. Can you create a magnificent, Tudor-style moniker (give yourself a Tudor nickname) of your own with a signature to match?
Find out about this area in Tudor times. Create a poster or leaflet to label any buildings, artefacts or fascinating information. Are there any houses still here from the Tudor era that you can photograph for your work?	Research online or in books, to discover more about Tudor buildings. Find out about the jetties, styles of chimney, and wattle and daub. Why were the walls white and the timbers black? Record your findings with illustrations and notes.	What can you find out about Anne of Cleves' family and her childhood? Put your findings in a PowerPoint presentation to show the class.
Tudor times were a great period of sea voyages and global exploration. Find out the names of some Tudor explorers and the new products they brought home. Be creative in how you record your results.
