'To Be The Best We Can Be'

Newsletter Friday 3rd November 2023

Message from Mrs E Flin our Headteacher 'To be the best that you can be'

I am glad that we all managed to get into school today after the rain and the wind. The Mulberry Gruffalo trip had to be rearranged and I hear that flood waters continue to rise. Let's hope it all returns to normal soon.

I have enjoyed an endless flow at times from Cherry and Apple with some lovely maths work this week. Lovely to see so many cheerful children doing so well at maths.

We were able to welcome our school improvement advisor in this week and he really enjoyed seeing children engaged in their learning, exciting learning environments and talking to children who know what they are learning about.

Tonight is the PTA Christmas shopping night with a glass of Prosecco - I do hope that many of you can make it.

Class Superstars for this week Beth from Mulberry, Della from Apple, Thomas from Cherry, Ayva from Horse Chestnut and Ollie from Oak.

Golden tickets this week have been awarded to Mia, Erin and Harrison A from Mulberry, Freddie B, Meadow & Dawson from Apple Tree, Marshall, James & Rachel from Cherry, Junior, Grace & Daisy from Horse Chestnut Tree, Henry, Awren, Ruby F & Henry F from Oak.

Sports Awards from last week are Jesse H from Apple, Isabella from Cherry, Arabella from Horse Chestnut and Kelsey from Oak Class

School Values were shown by Jack R, Theo, Scarlett & Beau H for Determination, Annie & Ava H for Respect, Olivia J, Olivia B, Poppy M, Leo and Calleigh for Kindness and for Hope we have Olivia O and Dougie.

Have a great weekend.
